

WELCOME TO ELLESMERE

Nesting between The Mere and the Shropshire Union Canal, our little market town has a wide variety of independent shops to interest the visitor. See the list beneath the town map of all our local retailers and businesses - and all are to be found in the town. Shopkeepers here are renowned for their friendliness and personal service to all their customers.

The people of Ellesmere know how to have fun - so they lay on numerous festivals and events throughout the year - and you are all very welcome. A quick look at our website will provide you with all the relevant details.

www.VisitEllesmere.co.uk

Ellesmere enjoys annual festivals in the town and the carnival starts here too!

There are weekly and monthly markets plus annual events in The Market Hall and the Town Hall holds its fair share of community events as well.

Ellesmere is a small and friendly market town with lots of shops and businesses, just take a look at the list below the map.

Town Centre Map

There are a variety of seasonal activities on and around The Mere: from boat trips to rowing boats and birdwatching to fishing; and the Cromore Gardens hosts many events from the Carnival and Regatta to Concerts and Festivals.

The Mere

The Shropshire Wildlife Trust Visitor Centre is located in the Boatshouse. Their friendly staff can offer wildlife advice and local information and their family events are held regularly.

at the top of Shropshire

Ellesmere is ideally located as a centre from which to tour the historic towns of Shrewsbury and Chester. Numerous gardens, castles and National Trust properties are within easy reach and North Wales is just a few miles away. Ellesmere is surrounded by beautiful countryside which is ideal for walking, cycling, fishing and boating, information on which is available on the website, which includes travel information, plus links to bus timetables and the railway station tables.
