

1. Ellesmere's claim to pantomime fame ? Dick Whittington born at the Newnes
2. Nothing to do with Scotland?
Scotland Street is named after a medieval tax
3. Ellesmere Canal was founded here ?
The Royal Oak in 1792 when the money was raised, later the Bridgewater Arms from 1820 and now the Ellesmere Hotel
4. Two streets named after trees?
Willow Street, Birch Road
5. Free news in Ellesmere ?
Mere News
6. Four Lion pubs in Ellesmere ?
Black, Red, White & Golden in Watergate Street
7. The Ellesmere Museum – where was it?
In the old Town Hall
8. A mean old woman and legendary matronymic?
Mrs Ellis
9. Bull-baiting took place here ?
The Square
10. The founder of Ellesmere College ?
Nathaniel Woodard
11. Street named after a Queen and another by pigs ?
Victoria Street and Swinemarket Street (now Market St)
12. Clay's iron foundry – where was it?
The Canal Wharf where Tesco now stands
13. Two of Telford's engineers who lived in Ellesmere ?
Thomas Stanton lived in Beech House & William Provis lived at the Grange
14. The Ellesmere educated bishop who made church history ?
Edward King
15. Ellesmere's famous rugby player ?
Bill Beaumont
16. The refuge of last resort.?
The Workhouse
17. Owain Glyn Dwr and John Kynaston rendezvoused here ?
Oteley
18. The Knights Hospitallers named it ?
St John's Hill
19. Ellesmere Station Master who made Trade Union history ?
Thomas Hood
20. The name of the last steam engine through Ellesmere ?
The Bradley Manor
21. Weekly for over 800 years ?
The Tuesday Market
22. The 'Canal Duke' ?
The Duke of Bridgewater
23. The woman who saved the children ?
Eglantyne Jebb
24. The Bricklayer's Arms is now called ?

The Market Hotel

25. Street named after a lady and a dog ?

Talbot Street

26. Notorious in London but sedate in Ellesmere ?

Cremorne Gardens

27. Bare-knuckle boxing took place here ?

Behind the Dolphin in Church Street

28. Sweet shop in Cross Street ?

Miss Crowther

29. The world's oldest firm of turret clock makers ?

Joyce of Whitchurch was founded at Cockshutt

30. A royal grave near here ?

A son the King of Basutoland (now Lesotho) was buried in Welshampton Churchyard in 1863